

Frank

I didn't mean what I said, it's all because I love u too much and I feel like u always are mad at me.

I am hurting the Business not on purpose! I never look at what I am doing correctly. I am always blaming you because I really don't understand Business

I am sorry for that, I am sorry for the things I said. I feel like your running and I can't keep up and that scares me.

I know you can't understand, I really look at you as a father not as a brother. Dad was never around and I always looked up to you.

~~maybe~~ your right it is my fault. I'm not sure where we go from here. I don't even have a plan, that's typical of me.

I really feel lost and I'm sorry that I hurt you.

I know you'll be great and I don't want to be in your way.

at the end of the day there is still the Business and today I'm involved

I don't want to be in the way anymore!

Again I apologize, I'll do my best to conduct Business until we figure this out.

Why would I run all the Rys you mentioned when this is your Bldg & you want to Expand & Develop more of your land Bld etc. What does that mean for me?
